The April luncheon is scheduled at the Elliott Museum on April 11, 2022, which is a Monday, they are closed on Mondays, so she asked if we could change the date. Pat Shingledecker made a suggestion to change the day to Tuesday the 12th, everyone was in agreement, so our next luncheon will be Tuesday, April 12, at the Elliott Museum at 12:30PM. If you want to go thru the museum you can do that after the luncheon, there are coupons in the Entertainment Book.

Our Sunshine lady, Marion Lloyd, said she sent cards for the March birthday's to Cindy Thomas, Bev Peterson, Loree Benedict, Joan Dumais and Jane Van Noord. We all sang Happy Birthday to the March birthday ladies.

Bev Peterson our Spring Festival chairperson said you can still buy tickets from the Gathering Grill today for the St. Patricks dinner for $12 Richie will be entertaining under the tent tonight starting at 6:30 PM. Bev also said if you are working at the festival you will get 5 tickets the day you work, as a thank you for working. If you don't know your time to work there is a list on the front table.

Pat Shingledecker reminded us of our annual banquet at Gigi's next Friday, March 25, at noon, as the restaurant is opening special for our group. There will be a 50/50 raffle and some gift certificates. A massage therapy session, $25 from Gigi's, and $25 from the Gathering Grill. So bring money. There will also be a cash bar, no credit cards for wine etc.

There was a discussion for a standing rule for absenteeism,
" Regular player that misses more than 3 consecutive time will be replaced permanently by the sub with the highest seniority for that year" Much discussion followed, illness, death, or other reasonable reason and will that person be able to return the following season,.... it was decided to Table it until next November's meeting so the wording can be Fixed.

No nominations for officers the present officers have a 2 year term. This is their first year.

Ann Hall and Marsha Benedict have purchased name tags to be used next season.

It was asked if we could have name tags at the banquet, too. That will be done!

No other business. Pat Shingledecker made a motion to adjourn the meeting

Marianne Todd seconded it.

Meeting adjourned at 12:35 PM

Respectfully submitted,

Marcia Zenk, Secretary
