Committee Reports

Gail Kantz our Tuesday manager stated all teams have been selected, and name tags have been made.

Marsha Benedict stated it was the same for Thursday's teams, with Bev Peterson going on leave of absence there will be 2 co-captains for her former team, Jan Hellman and Gail Ledkey. Marge Wilson asked about the Practices, she was told practice is open to all, even men.

Social Director Ellie Johnson said our January 9, Luncheon will be at the Waterfront Grill formerly Mulligans in Stuart on Flagler. You can sign up today..

Marsha Benedict said the House of Hope Christmas project was taken care of and there were 4 kids, 3 of which got bikes. Our Nettles Island Clowns also gave gifts..

Thanks to Cindy Thomas, Gail Kantz, Ann Hall and Marsha for going over and buying the gifts. It was discussed to give to more kids next year giving $60 tp $100 that would be spending less for more kids. Membership seemed to be in agreement.

The Annual Luncheon is waiting for a contract.

Since the Spring Festival has not had a meeting until tomorrow.....

Discussion and a vote was taken to give up to $850 to the Spring Festival since we will not have another meeting until January, Marge Wilson made a motion and 2nd by Cindy Thomas. Motion passed.

Bev Peterson asked if we still wanted to have Ice Cream as our project at the Spring Festival so she can bring it up at tomorrow's SF meeting. All agreeded.

Discussion was made about the March meeting and luncheon.

Annual Luncheon is March 24 and a motion was made to change the March meeting to the 16th and leave the luncheon on the 24th. All in agreement.

Four "clubs" asked for donations of money, our treasury is rather low, so it was agreeded to give no donations at this time. But a motion by Cindy Quaglino and 2nd by Marsha Benedict to give $50 to the Hibiscus House motion passed.

There were 3 birthday's this month Ann Hall, Gail Leckey and Candy Zych.

A discussion was made to up our dues from $5 a year to $ 10 The idea was tabled until our January meeting.

Pat Shingledecker's family sent 2 thank you cards to our club in the passing of her mother.

Marsha Benedict mentioned there is Caroling in the Park tomorrow night at 5pm

Meeting was adjourned at 12: 50 pm

Respectfully submitted,

Marcia Zenk, Secretary
