Old Business

Festival Report:

Geri Maxwell and Gail Leckey reported on the Bocce Olympics from the festival. There was a total of 16 teams that participated. It ran smoothly and everyone had a good time playing.

Bocce was more popular than Cornhole.

Food and Drink- Everything went well. Results of how sales went will be reported at the April 1st festival meeting.

It was suggested that we might consider expanding the hours on the first day of the festival and start selling drinks and ice cream earlier.

New Business

Anyone who wants to continue to play through the spring/summer months can sign up on sheet being passed around by Pat Stablie. Play will start end of April and continue through summer.

Marsha Benedict proposed changes to some standing rules. A motion was made by Marion Lloyd to table this and have the executive board make the changes and bring it back next meeting for a vote. It was seconded by Bev Peterson.
Executive board to meet on this after today's meeting.
